

Prof. Huang Invited Speaker at LSCM Logistics Summit 2014

The LSCM Logistics Summit held on 18 September 2014. The LSCM Logistics Summit 2014 brings together government officials, logistics industry players, supply chain management experts, solution providers, system integrators, representatives of academia and research institution, with the aim of sharing the latest industry development, providing a platform for the participants to expand network and explore business opportunities for collaboration and partnership. Professor Huang was invited to give a speech on “Multi-dimensional ( $nD$ -)BIM Applications with RFID-Enabled Real-Time Visibility and Traceability”.

