

Invited Presenter at IPIC 2014

The purpose of this first international Physical Internet conference is to bring together all interested parties and facilitate a sharing of minds in order to build new foundations and steering momentum towards the emergence of efficient and sustainable interconnected logistics. Université Laval hosted this international event on May 28-30, 2014, in Quebec City, Canada.

